> I feel that I have gone too far
 I see her eyes light up like stars

> And see that dangerous light inside
 "Don't mess with me. Don't even try."

She's far too arrogant, far too silent

> Far too many secrets lurking inside the quiet
 And her eyes...everything about her is linked to their light

> They're too powerful, too dark, and yet too bright

But somewhere behind those eyes, so determined, filled with stars

> I think I see something else...sorrow? despair? I see a scar
 And yet it gives no hint as to the cause

> But that sadness within her makes me pause

Could it be that she's not the fierce enemy she seems?

> Could it be that inside this mysterious girl, too, there are dreams?
 Could it be that she's truly one of us?

> Could it be that one day she'll be worthy of our trust?

I know nothing of her past, I don't know what she was

> And sometimes I feel that she cannot be human, never one of us
 Never one of my race, but that's impossible I know

> So why is it that her eyes with secrets so often glow?
